A CALL FROM 500 EX-CONFEDERATES. Canton, Ohio, Oct. 4.-Major McKinley went to church this morning to hear Dr. Manchester, his new pastor. This afternoon he took a drive and enjoyed the beautiful October air and sunshine. He is thoroughly rested to-day, and feels in nowise fatigued by his great day of speechmaking yesterday. Major McKinley thinks Saturday was, perhaps, the most remarkable of the campaign.

history of American politics offers n parallel for it. The visits of delegations reached high-water mark, and never before were so many lines of human activity represented.

This week will be one of the most interesting of the whole campaign. It begins Monday with the call of a large delegation of farmers from Northern Missouri. Many of the Missouri farmers will travel 800 miles to reach Canton. Tuesday an excursion of Republicans from Central New-York will occupy a conspicuous place among visiting delegations. The incident of commanding interest will be the visit of 500 ex-Confederate veterans on Friday. They are coming from the Shenandoah Valley, and handsome arrangements for their reception are being perfected. At Pittsburg and various points on the route they will be made the recipients of uncommon courtesies. The Grand Army posts of Canton will entertain the ex-Confederates here, and no opportunity to make their visit an agreeable one will be lost.

More news of a cheering character has been received by Major McKinley from all parts of the country to-day. Reports from Colorado of the country to-tay.

A LONELY OLD MISER'S AWFUL DEATH.

BITTEN BY A DOG HE KILLS THE BRUTE, THEN CHAINS HIMSELF TO A POST AND DIES FROM RABIES.

Cleveland, Oct. 4 .- The little town of Hinckley, twenty-one miles from this city, in Medina County, was the scene of a greusome death Saturday. Nearly twenty years ago there appeared in Hinckley a stranger of whom nothing was snown beyond the name which he gave, pard Shermann, and with him came a big St. Bernard dog, which was his inseparable companion. The stranger took up his abode in an old hovel which he rented in the outskirts of the hamlet. The living place of the old man gradually became surrourded with an air of mystery, and the place came to be regarded with superstition and fear. The mysterious dweller rarely visited the village, and then only for the necessaries of life, which he seemed to have plenty of money to pay for.

and an investigation was begun. When the door to the hut was broken in the old man was found lying dead, chained to a post, the condition of the body telling of a terrible struggle, which the doctors have ascribed to hydrophobia. Just outside the hovel was found the dog. The beast's death had been caused by an axe wound in the head. The supposition is that the brute went mad and bit his master. The old man, realizing that death was inevitable, had locked himself in when he felt the madness coming, chained him-elf fast, locked his fetters with a padlock, and threw the key away. Buried under the floor of the hovel was found Buried under the floor of the hovel was folded $13,000 in gold. There was nothing that could shed light on the inysteries of his life. In one pocket was found an ocean steamer check from Liverpool, dated November 9, 1874, and on the wall hung an oil miniature of a lovely woman and a child. The body was decently buried.

TOWN ELECTIONS IN CONNECTICUT.

70-DAT'S VOTING WILL SHOW WHAT THE "LAND OF STEADY HABITS" THINKS.

New-Haven, Oct. 4 (Special).—How Connecticut will go in the coming State and Presidential elec-tions will be indicated by to-morrow's voting contest in this State. Elections will be held in 167 of the 169 towns, New-Haven and Bridgeport being the exceptions. The Republican State Central Committee has alded the town committees in conducting a vigorous campaign before the town elections, and everybody concedes a sweeping Republican victory. Scores of Democrats in the vari ous towns, indignant that the party had indorsed silver, will stay at home in even the town elections, and in one or two cases an independent gold Democratic ticket has been put into the field to prevent the silver men from gaining control of even the towns. The result of the elections will filled pulse.

ALL UNEMPLOYED ARMENIANS MUST LEAVE THAT COUNTRY.

TAN-A GERMAN PAPER CURIOUSLY SETTLES

THE TURKISH QUESTION-SENTIMENT OF THE PRESS IN GENERAL.

London, Oct. 4.-The Constantinople representative of The United Associated Presses telegraphs that the Porte will request the Bulgarian Government to expel a. unemployed Armenians from that country. The request will be based on the ground that these idle Armenians assemble in the cafés in Sofia and other large towns of Bulgaria and co. spire against the Sultan. M. Dimitroff, the Bulgarian Diplomatic Agent at Constantinople, has protested against the proposed action of the Turkish Government.

The correspondent further says that serious disturbances occurred at the Yildiz Klosk, the Sultan's residence, on Thursday. Twenty Softas, theological students, desired to obtain an audience with the Sultan. Upon their request being refused they attempted to force themselves into the presence of His Majesty. The troops, who were on cuty, prevented their entrance, but in doing so killed three of the Softas. The others were arrested.

Berlin, Oct. 4 .- The "Alt Deutsche Blätter" prints an amazing story of a scheme for the division of Turkey, claiming the whole of Asiatic Turkey for Germany, adding that Germany may possibly allow the Sultan to remain ruler under a German protectorate, assuming the direction and administration only of affairs in the Tigris and Euphrates valleys.

The semi-official press make much of the supposed influence which Baron Saurma von Jeltsch, the German Ambassador to Turkey, exercises over the Sultan, which the papers ascribe to the Turkish monarch's conviction that the representative of Germany at Constantinople is not actuated by selfish aims.

The papers also connect with this presumed feeling on the part of the Sultan the reported feeling on the part of the Sultan the reported departure from Constantinople for Berlin of General Grumbkoff, a German officer in the Ottoman service, as the bearer of an autograph letter from the Sultan to the Kaiser. It is said that the communication expresses the Sultan's gratitude at the attitude assumed by Germany in the Turkish crisis, and ascribes the troubles in Turkey to revolutionary agitators. The Sultan also, according to report, assures the Kaiser that the Christians in Turkey will be absolutely safeguarded unless they indulge in anarchistic excesses.

London, Oct. 4 .- "The Daily News" will to-mor row publish an interview had by its correspondent in Geneva with Garo and Hratch, two of the leaders of the Armenian refugees. They give a graphic description of the recent outbreak in Constantinople, and declare that the Revolutionary Committee in Constantinople would wait for perhaps a month to see whether the Powers would act. They repudiated any animosity against the Turkish nation, saying that they warred only against the Government. When it was proposed last August to set fire to Constantinople they had refused the proposal, because it would have been cruel. They had supported the plan to attack the Imperial Ottoman Bank in preference to deing anything that would cause suffering to the residents of Conthat would cause suffering to the residents of Con-stantinopie. They added that they would not hesi-tate to kill soldiers and policemen, but they would not injure peaceable people. The Government, they significantly said, might reflect that the scheme for the burning of Constantinopie might have been more easily effected than the capture of the Otto-man Bank. The city is built of wood and could be quickly destroyed.

London, Oct. 4.—"The Daily News" will to-morrow publish a dispatch from Vienna confirming the report that the Powers have agreed upon a pacific settlement of the Eastern question honorable to all the parties concerned and amply guaranteeing the future security of the Armenians.

The dispatch adds that the leading feature of the agreement is the formation of a Christian zone, on the basis of the Jewish pale in Russia, in which security of life and property will be assured the Armenians by all the Powers, or some of them, any necessary active operations to be undertaken by Great Britain, France and Russia, and, perhaps, Italy.

THE ARMENIANS MUCH TO BLAME. BARON VON SAURMA-JELTSCH, GERMAN AMBAS-SADOR TO TURKEY, TALKS OVER

THE SITUATION.

Berlin, Oct. 4.-The "Lokal Anzelger" publishes an interview with Baron von Saurma-Jelisch, the Ger-man Ambassador to Turkey, concerning the situaman Ambassador to Turkey, concerning the stud-tion in that country. The Ambassador says he does not think that the recent horrors will be soon re-newed. The Turks have been somewhat frightened by their own acts, and the decided attitude of the Powers has calmed the hotheads.

Powers has caimed the hotheads.

Continuing, Baron von Saurma-Jeltsch declares that the demands of the Armenians are unjustifiable and impracticable. They have great freedom in religion and trade, and are very prosperous. Their unscrupulous manner of trading has stirred up much bad blood between them and the Turks. They have no regard for anything or anybody. They have plundered Turkey for cer anybody. They have plundered Turkey for cent-uries, and are usurers and dishonest dealers. The Turks were only wrong in their manner of crushing the rebellion, that is, in not distinguishing the in-nocent from the guilty. In reality there was only one revolutionist among 1,000 Armenians. The leaders of the revolters were mainly ambitious students who had imbibed revolutionary ideas at

THIRTY-ONE PRISONERS IN A POOLROOM. The police of the Mercer-st. station learned last

HE STARTS FOR CHEREOURG, FRANCE, AC-COMPANIED BY A FLEET OF BRIT-ISH WARSHIPS THIS MORNING.

Portsmouth, Oct. 4.-The special train from Ballater, Scotland, bearing the Czar and Czarina and the members of their suites, arrived here at 5:30 o'clock this afternoon. Their Majesties appeared none the worse for their long journey from the Highlands, where they had been the guests of the Queen at Balmoral.

Everything was in readiness here for their departure for Cherbourg, and a fine display of flags, etc., was made in honor of the brief visit of Their Majesties. The many warships and other vessels in the harbor were handsomely dressed in honor of the occasion, and the jetty was a mass of bunting, which made a brave show. A large detachment of troops was present to act as a guard of honor, and when the Czar and Czarina appeared the military bands played the Russian National anthem. The Right Hor. George J. Goschen, First Lord of the Admiralty; Admiral Sir Frederick Richards, Rear-Admiral Sir Frederick Bedford, Rear-Admiral St. John Fisher, Captain G. H. Noel and Austen Chamberlain, the other lords of the Admiralty, Admiral Sir Newell Salmon, commander-in-chief at Portsmouth, and a large umber of other high naval officers were pres ent on the platform when the train arrived. The Duke of Connaught, who accompanied the imperial party from Ballater, presented the naval officers and other officials to the Czar and Czarina.

After a short delay at the station the party boarded the Russian imperial yacht, Polar Star, a change for some reason having been made in the programme which provided that the passage of the Cha nel should be made in the Czar's new yacht, the Standart. As they went on board the Polar Star the warships in the harbor fired a royal salute.

Paris, Oct. 4.—The city is full to overflowing w visitors from the provinces and elsewhere to take part in the fetes in honor of the Czar. It is calculated that there are 40,000 visitors walking th streets to-night, they having been unable to secure accommodations anywhere in the city. The punithuses and tram cars are literally packed ing along the streets, waiting patiently to find some means of conveyance. A majority of the desiring to get about the city are compelled to The cab and carriage drivers are taking advantage of the great influx of visitors, and are little attention being paid to the established tariff. This, however does not cause much fault-finding, as the crowd is a holiday one, which seemds its money freely. All is excitement and bustle, and everybody is looking forward with intense expectance to the arrival of the Czar. From present indications, it looks as though His Majesty will be accorded to him.

President Faure has gone in state to Cherbourg to await the coming of the Czar. He is accompanied by the President of the Senate, the President of the Chamber of the Senate, the President of the Chamber of Deputies, Baron de Montreinem, the Russian Ambassador to France; Count Lannes de Montebello, French Ambassador to Russia, and a number of prominent naval and military officers.

MOORE BROTHERS RESPONSIBLE

DIAMOND MATCH COMPANY WILL DECLINE TO TAKE $708,767 OF STOCK BOUGHT ON MARGINS.

Chicago, Oct. 4.—A morning paper says: "President O. C. Barber, of the Diamond Match Company, in a circular to stockholders which will be pany, in a circular to stockholders which will be issued in the next day or two, will announce as his opinion that the $758,767 which was used by the Moore Brothers as margins on the 17,750 shares of stock purchased for the account of the company was illegally used, and that it is a claim against the Moore Brothers which will be held against them until it is liquidated. President Barber will send the stockholders also a report from Edwin Walker, the new director and general counsel of the company, in which Mr. Walker gives it as his opinion that notes issued by the Diamond Match the company, in which Mr. Walker gives it as his opinion that notes issued by the Diamond Match Company were issued without authority, and that the Moores may be held liable for the amount. Mr. Walker also says the Diamond Match Company is not and cannot be held to be implicated in any of the speculative transactions of the Moore Brothers, and the full extent of its liabilities, he says, is the amount of the notes issued and discounted at the banks. The company, in his opinion, is not bound banks. The company, in his opinion, is not bound to take the stock bought on margins in the name of J. K. Robinson, trustee, and for the account of the Diamond Match Company.

This marks what is believed to be the beginning of a final rupture between O. C. Barber and the Moore brothers, who have until the last three months worked hand in glove in Diamond Match months worked hand in glove in Diamond Match affairs. The circular which President Barber will send the stockholders opens with the statement that there is due a report showing the condition of the company after the recent failure of the Moore brothers, who are officers of the company and whose methods in stock speculation have caused more or less unfriendly criticism. In continuing

President Barter says:

The amount involved or withdrawn by them from the company while acting as officers and used by them to margin their purchases of stock of this term to margin their purchases of stock of this company is 759,875 17. This is the amount of their indebtedness to the company, and it will be held against them until it is ifquidated. We are not certain that the whole amount is lost, but are hopeful that we may recover a part if not all of such indebtedness. There can be no reason whatever for apprehension by the stockholders who hold their stock for investment. The retirement of the Moores from all official connection with the company has increased public confidence, and even at this early date there are evidences of a substantial improvement of conditions.

The report of Mr. Walker is an interesting one. He gives in detail his views of the transactions.

He gives in detail his views of the transactions, and says that the shares of stock had been bought and says that the shares of slock had been bought on margins and that the proceeds of the notes issued by the Moore brothers had been used in the payment of such margins. He says the result of the investigation made by him at the request of the Roard of Directors was that the stock had been Board of Directors was that the stock had been bought and that the notes had been issued and discounted without authority of the Board or of any committee of the Board. "Briefly stated, your company is in nowise implicated in any of the transactions of the Moores connected with their speculations," he continues. "If during the time they had tions," he continues, "If during the time they had been no official position and had been entirely disbeld no official position. The altar was appropriately decorated, and several well-known priests assisted the Cardinal in the mass, which was Guilmant's in E flat, with Gounod's "Laudate Dominum" as the

The day ras been in some degree a day of farewells to the departing and welcomes to the coming great dignitaries of the Church. The last official work of Cardinal Satolli in connec tion with his late status as the direct representative of the Pope is shown in the following letter addressed to-day to the Papal Secretary of State:

While conveying to Your Excellency this information, I most condaily dufil a grateful duty by thanking Your Excellency for all the kindness you have shown me from the time of my arrival in this country up to to-day. A TESTIMONIAL FROM STUDENTS.

To-night, in New Gonzaga College Hall, the cornerstone of which was laid by Cardinal Satelli, a farewell reception was tendered to the Cardinal by the students, the occasion also being the dedication of the new hall. The auditorium and gallery, which are of spacious dimensions, were crowded to their fullest extent, scene, with pots of chrysanthemums, palms the Archbishop, clothed in their robes of scarlet and dazzling jewelled insignia, surrounded by a number of prominent Catholic clergymen, appeared as a living centre-piece, there were re-well-known clergymen, including the Very Rev. William O'Brien Pardow, provincial of the Marytand New York province: Fathers Driscoll of Philadelphia; Fedican, of Atlantic City; Richards, of Georgetown; Morgan, of Loyola College, Pappl, of Woodstock, Md. and others.

The exercises, which were altogether social in character, opened with addresses from the students of Gonzaga College, all of which expressed the great regard felt for the Cardinal and mingling regrets for his departure with one of the youthful orators, bestowing his meed which might be awaiting the guest of the evening, the Cardinal opened wide his eyes, which had been half closed in meditation, and, with

FATHER PARDOW'S ADDRESS.

Father Pardow, who celivered the address of the evening, spoke highly of the character of the Cardinal, who, he said, was not so well known to the people as to the clergy. "He stands out," said the speaker, "unflinchingly opposed to divorce between religion and education. He has placed the seal of his approval upon the parochial school system and encouraged the doctrines announced in the old philosophy and .he old theology. The Cardinal had travelled this country from end to end, and had acquired a thorough knowledge of the American people and," said Father Pardow, humorously, "when he goes to Rome he will give to the Pope a thorough understanding of our National game. He knows all about it, and took such interest that on one occasion, when he played a baseball game, His Eminence liked it so well that he translated the hits into

Becoming more serious, Father Pardow spoke of the sadness of the occasion. "The Cardinal will on his return." he continued, "tell the Pope that he found in America a large, loyal body of Carbolle and Miller and Catholics, and will tell him also that he found among the American people at large a desire for truth and fair play." The speaker then intifor truth and fair play. The speaker then inti-mated that there may have been pages in recent history containing assaults upon the Church, and words may have been said in response that it would be well to blot out; but he asserted that the people who took such ground never were true Americans. (Applause.)

CARDINAL SATOLLES THANKS

Several allusions in his address called forth marked signs of pleasure from the Cardinal and Archbishop Martinelli, and at the close Father Rooker arose and spoke for the Cardinal, who made no remarks himself. Dr. Rooker said he was delegated by the Cardinal to say that, alwas delegated by the Cardinal to say that, although he had had several farewell receptions in the past, this actually was a farewell reception. He expressed his thanks for the farewell greeting, the cordiality of which was beyond any doubt. He spoke of the Cardinal's love for St. Aloysius parish, where he had dwelt so long and in which its members by their friendship and courtesy had made him feel at home.

After some other remarks referring to the local work of the parish, the Cardinal's representative concluded, and then the entire audience passed upon the stage, where the two prelates stood, and shook their hands, while many seemed visibly affected as they took for a parting grasp the band of the first Delegate in America from the Papal See.

THE GEORGIA ELECTION MAY FORCE HIM TO TAKE THE DOSE HE PRESCRIBES FOR SEWALL.

Atlanta, Ga. Oct. 4 (Special).-In connection with rumors of "Tom" Watson's possible referement m the Populist ticket, the point is being made ere that the election for State officers to be held in Georgia next Wednesday may make that step the only logical thing for Watson to do. It will be remembered that when Maine went overwhelm-ingly Republican a few weeks ago Watson, both through his paper and on the stump, shrieked aloud that the only thing for Sewell to do was to ome down at once. He hooted at the idea of come down at once. He hooted at the idea of a Vice-Presidential candidate remaining on the ticket after being so severely rebuved by his own State, and declared that the logic of the situation made Sewall's retirement ineviable. Georgia is sure to go Democratic in Wednesday's election. Wright, the Populist nominee for Governor whose cause Watson has actively espoised, will be defeated, and it will then remain to be seen whether Watson will withdraw.

The Democratic managers betray no desire to make big claims on their majority in the approaching election, and it seems certain that it will be less than in previous elections. The most conservative estimates put it at about 20,000.

X RAYS SUCCESSFULLY USED.

A BULLET PHOTOGRAPHED IN THE HEAD OF A MAN SHOT BY A HIGHWAYMAN.

Washington, Oct. 4.-Dr. William Gray, of the m has made an intere cessful experiment by photographing by the X-ray process the head of F W. Emrich, who was shot recently by a highwayman. The purpose was to find the builet fired by the young man's assailant, and it was located without trouble. The experi-ment was witnessed by Dr. A. A. Snyder, the physiclan of Mr. Emrich; by the subject's brother, and by two friends.

Mr. Emrich lay upon a lounge in Dr. Gray's office. The plate was placed under the right side office. The plate was placed under the right side of his head, and the X-ray tube suspended above and close to the other side of the cranium. The current was then turned on, and the first exposure lasted about fifteen minutes. After a brief rest a second exposure was made, lasting nearly twice as long.

Dr. Gray immediately developed the negatives. Both were good, but the second plate showed a result that Dr. Snyder said was the best X-ray photograph he had seen made in this city. The bullet was clearly to be seen. It was shown to be embedded in the fleshy part of the head, just at the junction with the neck, a little to the right side of the middle of the back of the cranium. Mr. Emrich stood the experiment well, and was pleased with the result.

A NUMBER OF PROMINENT REPUBLICANS IN CONFERENCE.

SENATOR QUAY BACK HERE FOR WORK AT HEAD

QUARTERS-THE PROSPECTS OF RETURNING GOLD REPUBLICANS IN PLACE OF SIL-

VERITES IN THE SENATE.

Senator Quay returned to the city late on Saturday night, and his appearance at the Fifth Avenue Hotel yesterday morning was followed by conferences among prominent Republicans believed to have an important bearing on certain phases of the campaign. Besides Senator Quay, there were at the hotel yesterday Chairman Hanna, Joseph H. Manley, General Powell Clayton, N. B. Scott and ex-Governor P. C. Cheney, of New-Hampshire, of the National Committee; ex-President Harrison and ex-Senator Anthony Higgins, of Delaware, and Dr. T. W. Graydon, of Cincinnati, and S. M. Taylor, Secretary of State of Ohio, the two last named being personal friends of Major McKinley, who are here, it was said last evening, on a special mission connected with the campaign in the Middle Western States. Senator Quay's return, and the announcement that he would remain at the Republican National headquarters for the present, taking charge of the campaign in the East, after Mr. Hanna's departure to-morrow, gave an effectual quietus to the yarn that Mr. Quay and Mr. Hanna had fallen out over the conduct of the campaign and the distribution of the campaign funds, and that Mr. Quay had gone back to Pennsylvania not to return to New-York before election. It was the only glimmer, apparently, of good news that had come to the Popocrats at the Hotel Bartholdi in a fortnight.

"I do not see how such a story was started," said Senator Quay, vesterday, talking to a Tribune reporter. "I went to my home in Beaver to spend a few days with my family, and celebrate my sixty-third birthday which occurred September 30, as has been n.y custom in late There never has been the slightest foundation for the statement that any disagreement has existed between Mr. Hanna and myself or between me and General Osborne, or anybody else at National headquarters. The tide has been running so overwhelmingly our way of late that I suppose some of the newspaper boys got tired of the monotony, and seized upon my birthday trip home as something that might be interpreted as evidence of a fuss at headquarters, and brighten up their reports for a day or so. The story has served its purpose, I suppose, and will hardly be revived."

THE SITUATION DISCUSSED.

A conference was held at the Fifth Avenue Hotel yesterday in which most of those whose names have been mentioned took part. The general situation was discussed prior to Chairman Hanna's departure for Chicago. "If you want to see the fur fly," Mr. Hanna said, the other day, "come out to Chicago the last weeks of October."

A general comparison of notes took place, and the conclusion was reached that the McKinley canvass was in excellent shape, and that another month of hard work in the lines which have been followed since the battle fairly opened was all that was required to insure Republican success beyond a peradventure. Senstor Quay counselled against any let-up in the sound-money assaults upon the Popocrate crumbling defences. "I never look upon a battle as won until the votes are counted and the result is declared," he said. "Our greatest danger may be overconfidence. Let us keep hard at it without the less of a moment until the polls close on November 3."

THE PROSPECTS IN THE SENATE. One of the important matters considered yesterday by the eminent Republicans in counsel, it was understood, was the condition of affairs in certain States now represented by silver men in the Senate, whose terms expire on March 4 next. To make the victory of next month a certain harbinger of the return of prosperity to the country, the United States Senate must be m the control of the advocates of the silver lunacy. A survey of the entire field was made, and the prospects for the election of Republican Legislatures which would choose sound-money Republicans to the upper branch in Congress were considered in detail. Brice, of Ohio, will be succeeded by Foraker, and no doubt was expressed that the places of Hill, of New-York, and Vilas, of Wisconsin, gold Democrats, and Cameron, of Pennsylvania, silver Republican, would be filled by sound-money Republicans. It was believed, too, that General Palmer, of Illinois, would have a gold Republican as his successor. As to States whose retiring Senators are silverites, recent reports received from South Dakota indicated the election of a Republican Legislature that will elect a Republican standing on the St. Louis platform in place of Kyle, Populist. Hopeful advices have been received also from Kentucky, making the permanent retirement of "Joe" Blackburr, from the Senate probable, and sending a Republican to Washington to sit in the seat of Henry Clay. doubt was expressed that the places of Hill, of

Henry Clay. HOPEFUL OF KANSAS, ALSO.

The outlook for the election of a Republican sound-money man to succeed Peffer, the longwhiskered Populist of Kansas, was also believed to be good. The vacancy in Delaware's Senate representation, caused by the remarkable methods of J. Edward Addicks, was also considered. Ex-Senator Higgins, who was present, gave a highly satisfactory account of how things were going in his State. He believed that Delaware would go Republican again this fall and elect a Republican Legislature that would fill the existing vacancy with a trusted Republican. The present silver majority in the Senate varies from three to seven, jority in the Senate varies from three to seven, according to the nature of the measure proposed. A change of four votes, therefore, would make possible the adoption of remedial legislation soon after McKinley's inauguration. Some obstacles more or less formidable are to be overcome in the States that have been named, but the belief was general that the coming triumph for sound money and Republicanism will be so complete that it will insure a transfer of the control of the Senate to the right side.

Ex-President Harrison has agreed to make some more speeches after he gets through with his West Virginia and Southern trip. He will spend the latter part of October on the stump in Ohio and Indiana.

Among Sound Money Democrats who were in the city yesterday were ex-Secretary Don M. Dickinson, of Michigan, and ex-Congressman (William D. Bynum of Indiana, chairman of the Palmer and Buckner National Committee.

Mr. Bynum said last evening:

"If Illinois and the adjacent States are not converted to sound money it will not be the fault of the National Democratic Committee. We are sending out of Chicago sound-money literature at the rate of three car-loads a day, and we shall keep it up until we have covered every State in our section that we are led to believe is tinctured with Bryanism." according to the nature of the measure pro-
